Skanadario Hosts Wine Tasting with John Otis from Frisco-based CrossRoads winery

In March, Skanadario hosted award-winning winemaker John Otis, from Frisco-based CrossRoads Winery who presented a tasting flight of his current vintages. With plenty to choose from, no one varietal stood out and every taster had a favorite. The red wines included the Vintner's Blend, Ryan's Choice Syrah, and CSM Proprietary Blend (Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah and Merlot). Wine wine selections included Vintner's Blend and Sunfusion (Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay).

In addition to tasting these fine wines, we discussed proper wine storage and serving techniques. Skanadario offers wine coolers with numerous options including freestanding or built-in, full-height or undercounter, stainless steel or wood panel fronts, and single or dual temperature zones. Appliance lines represented in the presentation included Thermador and U-Line. Additional wine units are available from Viking, Miele, Gaggenau, and Liebherr.

Winemaker John Otis drinks a glass of wine with designer Christina Ryan and builder Barry Hensley.
